Certainty L.M.

Wells Currier, C Minor Dorian

Written for Social Band and dedicated to Jeffrey

Katie Shimizu, 2004

1.Give ear to me Ye sons of - men Why stand ye ga - zing
2.Fare - well my neigh - bors kind and free, The hap - py hour is

1.Give ear to me Ye sons of men Why stand ye ga - zing
3.Re - joice ye mour - ners here be - low, That I have gone to

1.Give ear to- me Ye sons of men Why stand ye ga - zing
2.Fare - well my neigh - bors kind and free, The hap - py hour is

1.Give ear to me Ye sons of men Why stand ye ga - zing
3.Re - joice ye mour - ners here be - low, That I have gone to

'round my bed? We all must die the Lord knows when hast'-ning on, When you will say con - cer - ning me,

'round my bed? We all must die the Lord knows when worlds a - bove; Yet mourn your grief in par - ting so,

'round my bed? We all must die - the Lord knows when And hast'- ning on, When you will say con - cer - ning me, Your

'round my bed? We all must die the Lord knows when worlds a - bove; Yet mourn your grief in par - ting so

And lie a - mongst the si - lent dead
Your pre - cious love is dead and gone

And lie a - mongst the si - lent dead
For I am wor - thy of your love lie a - mongst the si - lent - dead pre - cious love is dead and gone

Though now in 18

Though now in health, in health you all may die

Though now in health you all may die, in health you all may die

Though now in health you all may die, you all may die health you all may die Though now in health you all may die

25

and turn to dust and turn to and turn to dust and turn to dust, and turn to and turn to dust, and turn to and turn to

29

1. 2.

dust as soon as I as soon as I I

dust as soon as I as soon as I I

dust as soon as I, as soon as I I

dust as soon as I, as soon as Though now in I

Text