Thaba Chueu (S. Sotho)

Thaba Chueu – the White Mountain, white as if snow-covered – here represents purity, beauty, and innocence. Like the snow, these things are fragile and fleeting. The singer wants to catch the beauty while it lasts. He implores a messenger to hurry to the white mountain where he had seen a most beautiful girl, and bring her back to him. Published in The Folk Rhythm V. 2 by Northern Harmony Publishing.

Thaba Chueu ka e bona e kgabile ka bosweu -2x
Ga'ra dithaba tse putswa, putswa, e kgabile ka bosweu – 2x

Leseika la thaba le kgaoga, thethekwane di wele – 2x

Thaba Chueu wee ke rome mang – 2x

Ke ratile ngwan'e motle ditshabeng, seponono se dikoti marameng
Ngwana theka le sesanyana, ke mmone Thaba Chueu we - 2x

He wena mosanyana tlo kwano ke ho rome
O itleme ka lefitiori iyelele o nkele Thaba Cheue we - 2x

Ke rome mang, ke rome mang, ke rome mang, ke rome mang – 2x